Student Body
Northmont High School
Dear Students:

This first issue of the Northmont Aurora is dedicated to you with the hopes that you will continue to uphold the outstanding tradition that has been set this year.

You have displayed the combined qualities of fine sportsmanship and loyalty to your school.

The difficulties faced by the consolidation of our former high schools such as adaption to different surroundings and varying personalities were met with a spirit of determination and willingness to co-operate. In the true spirit of adventure, you embarked on an entirely new and different journey through this past year. Your attitude and actions have displayed the ability to conform to new ways of life. The experiences gained this year will prove valuable in the future.

Best wishes from:
THE AURORA STAFF

As regularly as the sun, the flag rose to face the day.

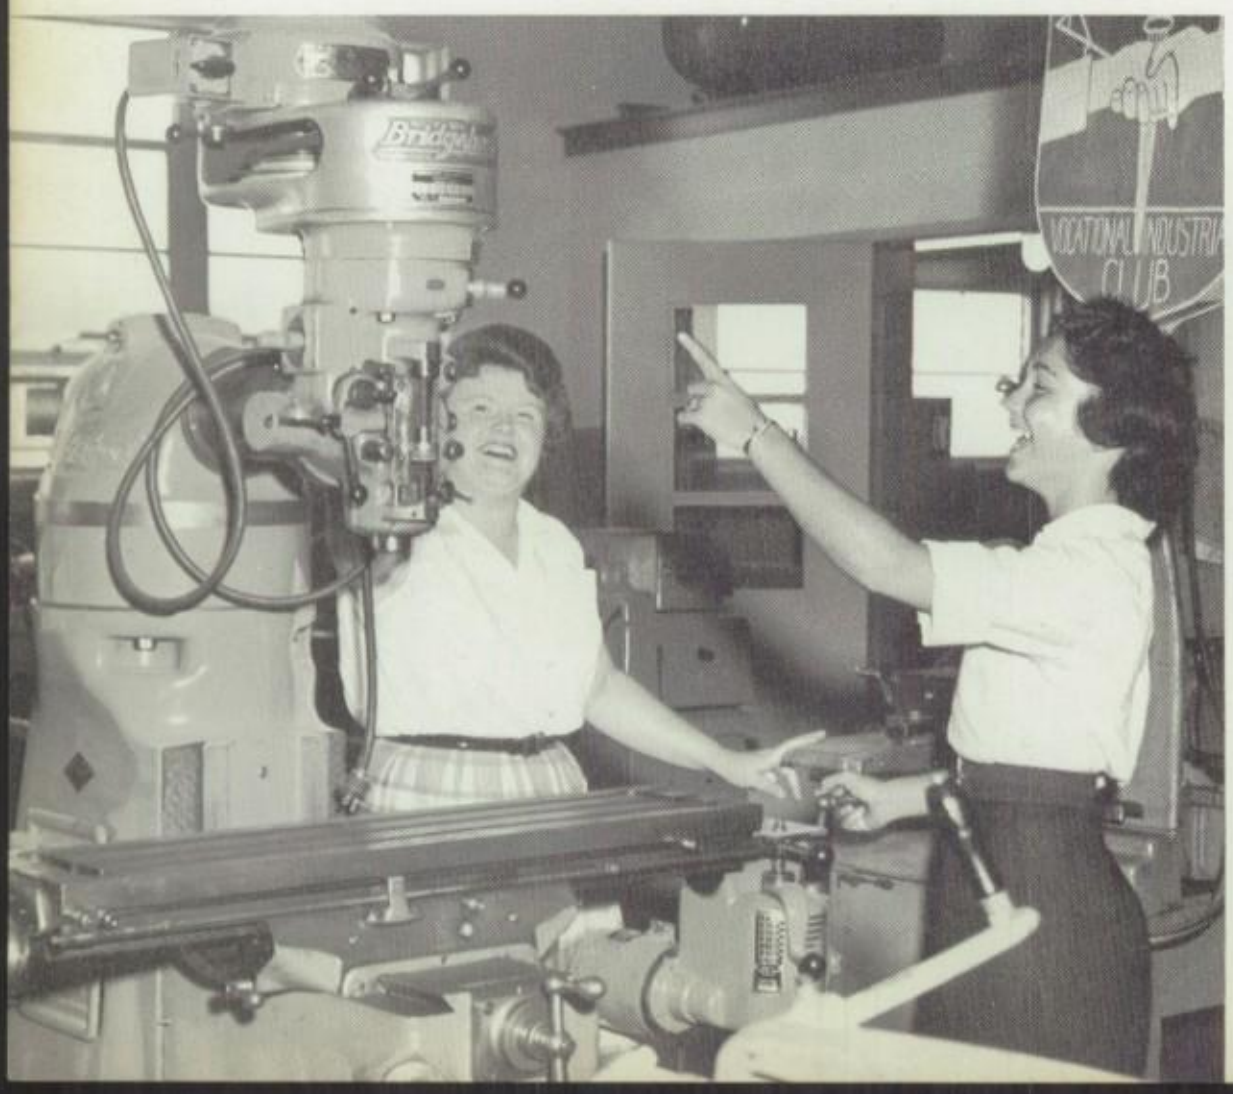
The Explorer Scouts arrived early to begin the day in the true spirit of citizenship.

Lack of transportation was no excuse for remaining at home. Many students came in the buses, while others came in cars.

All the time was not spent in the classroom. Everyone enjoyed a friendly chat with his neighbor before the last bell.

Study habits were formed in many different ways.
Teachers helped to "iron out" the problems that faced the students.

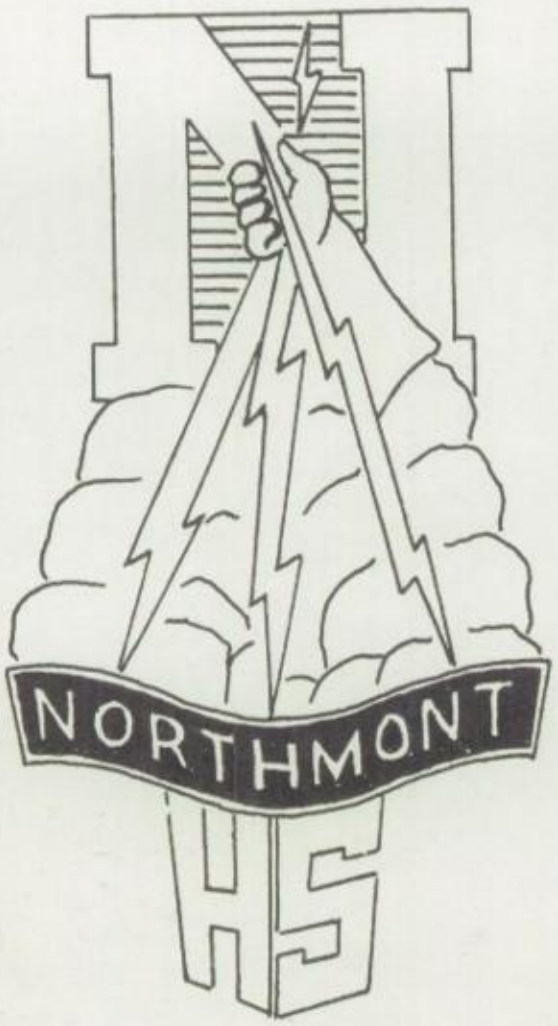
If the need arose, the time and place for studying could always be found.



Varying interests required numerous intriguing and humorous devices.

Lunch time became the gab session — relaxation point in the day. Because of the many students using the lunchroom, it was necessary to shorten the lunch period; but, there was still time to coverse with your buddy.

"The more the merrier" seemed to be the password.



To thee our alma mater we give our undying gratitude and our honored seal of approval!

Now the walls of Northmont High hold lasting memories of joyous times such as class plays, dances, and even graduation. Sadness is mixed in too. The Seniors especially feel joy as they complete their tasks, and sorrow because these days will never return.

The underclassmen will know these feelings in a few short years.

Senior Class of 1960
Northmont High School
Route 1
Clayton, Ohio

Dear Class,

May I congratulate you on this fine work in commemoration of the first year of Northmont High School. It has been a good year. Many new things faced you at the beginning of the year, new friends, and new teachers. You made the adjustment in a manner that would make anyone proud.

This point of your life is not the end. It is the beginning. What you do from this point will determine your worth to your fellow man. Some of you will go on to further education, some will go into the industrial world, others in to the world of business, still others into other phases of life. Whatever your choice may be, remember that you played the lead in getting Northmont High started and off to a good start.

Good luck to you, whatever you do, wherever you will be. May God bless all of you.

Sincerely yours,

R. E. Van Atta
Superintendent

Northmont Board of Education 59-60

Left to right: Jack Davis, Warren Ullery, James Hutchison, Richard Van Atta, Sam Arens, and Howard Durst.

The Northmont Board of Education is composed of a group of men who give their time to assure the children of the Northmont School District the best possible educational facilities and instructional program. They have done and will continue to do a wonderful job, and their efforts and consideration are greatly appreciated by the students of Northmont High School and all citizens of the communities of Clayton, Englewood, Phillipsburg, Union, and the surrounding area.

FOREWORD

The distribution of a yearbook is usually significant with the closing of the school year. However, most people do not realize the amount of time spent by the staff and advisors in organizing and publishing a yearbook. This is a difficult task anytime and more so when organizing a staff for the first time, with a new school. Many problems had to be solved by the new staff and these problems were solved by the cooperative effort of student staff members, company representatives and yearbook advisor. From September to February students are spending many extra hours in an effort to bring to the high school students and others the best possible edition of a yearbook.

The yearbook staff members are to be commended for their devotion to a task, which at times seems insurmountable, but with end results that are rewarding.

A yearbook is the history of the school for the year and in years to come will provide students of Northmont Senior High School and friends many pleasant memories.

Secretaries

Alice Gnagey

Answering the phone, paying the bills, answering the intercom, sorting the mail, keeping track of the callers and important visitors to Northmont, keeping the files and records neat and orderly, typing letters, dusting the furniture, making sure the office assistants are kept busy, and smiling are the requirements of a secretary at Northmont. These three women do all these things plus many extra jobs and favors for everyone in the school. They are always kept busy, but they still find time to say a cheerful "good morning" to all. Their services are greatly appreciated and Northmont is mighty proud of them. The Seniors will long remember them; the underclassmen will look forward to their assistance in the years to come.

SEATED: Mrs. Evelyn Morris, Guidance Counselor; STANDING: Mr. George Horn, Art Supervisor; Mr. Willis Cool, Director of Music; Mr. William Bowser, Diversified Training Program Supervisor.

Headache, cough, bloody nose, earache, If you have any of those complaints then go to the clinic. The nurses, along with the student aids, help to care for the students who need minor medical attention.

They are understanding, sympathetic, and friendly.

They are a very necessary part of Northmont and we would surely be lost without them.

A typical teacher's meeting?
(Really they're ready for Open House and Dedication which was held in November.)

Mrs. Alberta Brumbaugh
Dean of Girls

The Dean of Girls and the Dean of Boys are two positions that are new to the students of Northmont. Taking care of the problems of the students, checking attendance, keeping the record cards up to date, and compiling the honor roll were just some of the activities of Mrs. Brumbaugh and Mr. Kessler this past year.

They are a welcome addition to the staff and will help the students of Northmont become better citizens.

Mr. Anson Kessler
Dean of Boys

From 11:15 to 12:30 in the morning the busiest room at Northmont is the cafeteria.

It is here that the students get their daily supply of vitamins. Through the efforts of the women shown on this page, the students who buy their lunch as well as those who bring their lunch are assured of pleasant surroundings where they can enjoy themselves.

Hundreds of students pass through this line each day. The meals range from hot dogs and hamburgers to chicken and turkey.

The expressions on the faces of these students tells the story of the cafeteria.

"NORTHMONT HIGH IN DAYS TO COME

AND THE YEARS BEHIND US ROLL

SEE THE SONS HAVE RISEN FROM THEE

STURDY HEARTED, PURE OF SOUL.

WE WILL PLEDGE OUR LOVE FOREVER

SING THY PRAISES TO THE SKY,

WEAVE THE STORY OF THY GLORY

ALMA MATER,

NORTHMONT HIGH."

Seniors

We are the first class to be graduated from N.H.S. We have been together for only one short year, but the one hundred and sixty members of the Class of '60 will always remember the good times and pleasant memories of this year.

The year sped by quickly. From that day in September when we were "freshmen" in a new building to the day in June when we received our diplomas, we had many activities to keep us busy. Making new friends was our first goal to strive toward and we did it in many ways. The class play, football games, basketball games and tournaments, dances, parties, club meetings, and learning the latest gossip all helped to achieve this.

We will always remember our senior year and events with a warm glow of happiness and pride as we go in different directions to make our own places in the world.

"NORTHMONT EVER PROUD — GREEN AND WHITE — WE'LL FOLLOW YOU"
We are proud to be the CLASS OF '60.

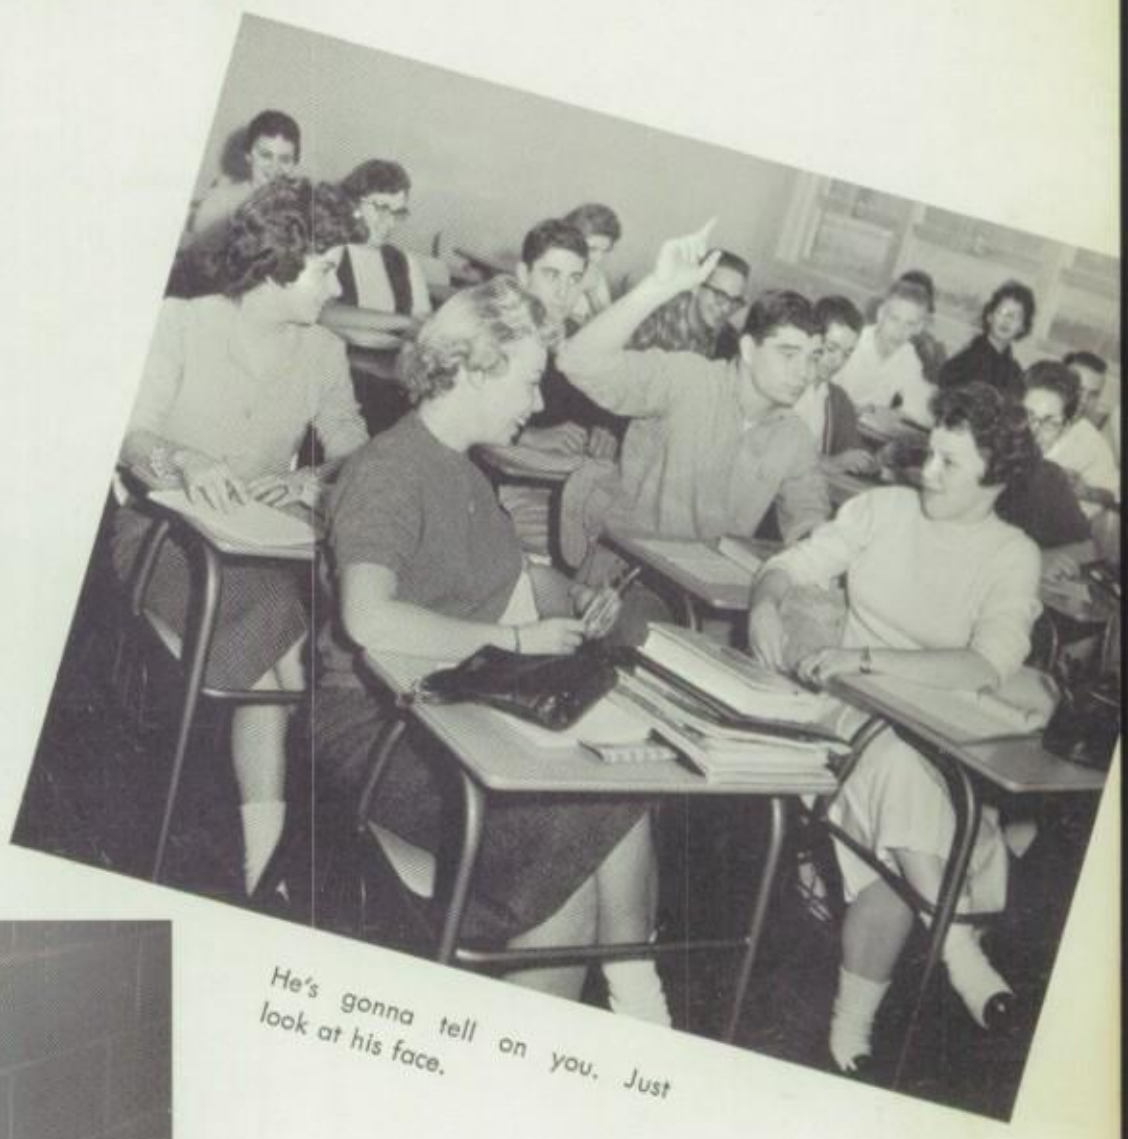
Senior Snaps

"Hey, stop pinching will ya!"



He's gonna tell on you. Just look at his face.

"Guess which container has a frog in it?"

"All right, all right, pick me up will ya?"

"Just wait until he hits those electrically charged 'paddle protectors.' "

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

STANDING: John Studebaker, Vice-president; Fred Fore, Sergeant-at-arms; SITTING: Ann Walker, Treasurer; Jackie Akers, Secretary; Susan Smith, President.

We, the class of 1961, have enjoyed our Junior year and have worked hard towards becoming Seniors. We had a lot of fun working on the Valentine Dance and the Prom. As Juniors we begin to realize what our goals in life should be.

Our best wishes go to the Senior class of 1960, for we will soon be next to follow in their footsteps.

We have been a good class and we are confident that we can face the coming year's decisions together.

We are proud to be called the CLASS OF '61!

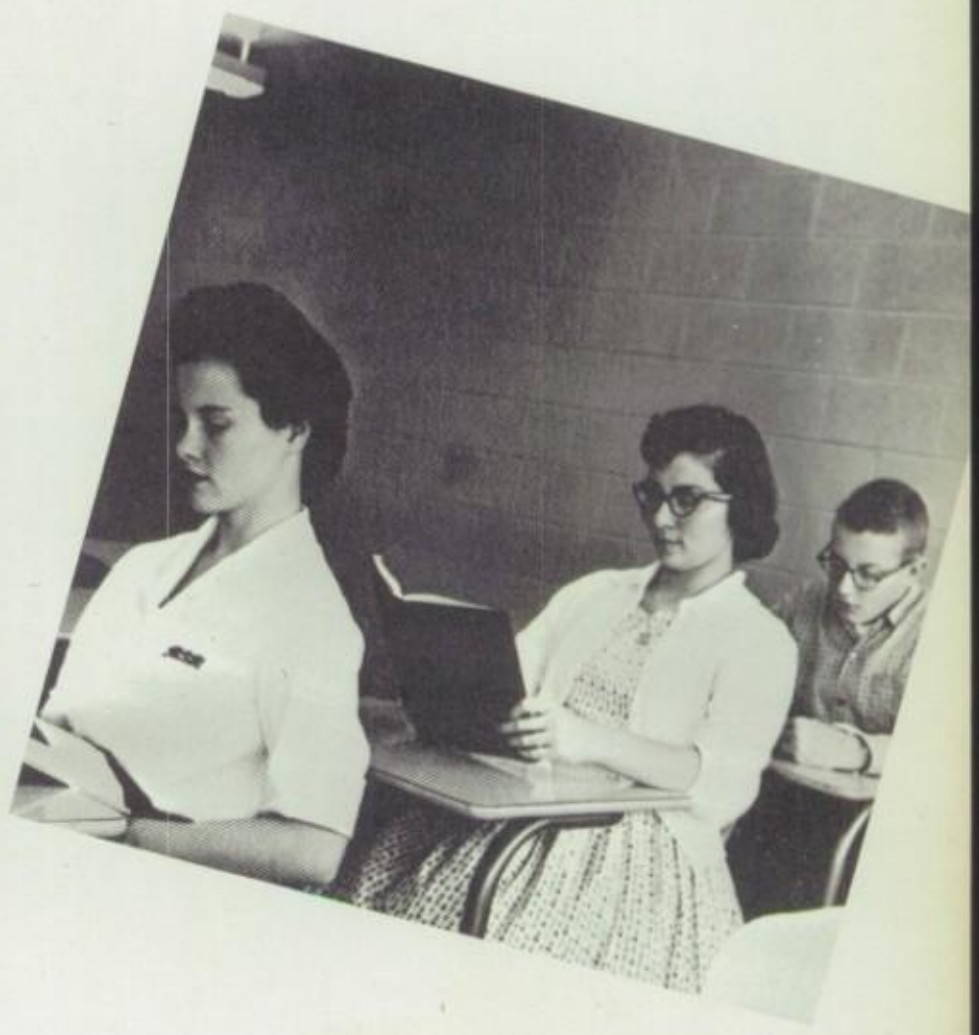
Upper classmen are always willing to lend a helping hand to their "brothers and sisters."

Scholarship



On May 5, students representing the different courses offered at N.H.S. traveled to Nettie Lee Roth High School to participate in the District Preliminary Scholarship Tests.

Many ranked high in their respective tests.

These students are ranked high in their own respective courses such as mathematics, history, science, and foreign language.

Speaker, Rev. Chiles

Getting ready for the big evening.

Families and friends come to see their loved ones take the final step.

June 3, 1960

Professor Delbert Oberteuffer
Ohio State University

Everyone was excited as the time grew near.

Introduction of speaker by Mr. Shell

Graduation

Special numbers by the choir added to the atmosphere an added delight.

Some were happy; others were not.

Receiving an honor cord was a great event experienced by twenty-six members of the class.

At last the time had come to say goodbye to the halls and students at Northmont. Everyone is proud of the CLASS OF '60.

We wish to express our sincerest thanks to just a few of the people who have made this year's annual possible: to our annual advisor, Mr. Horn; to Mr. Reynolds for the wonderful pictures which he produced on his own time; to the businessmen who placed ads in this annual; and to Powell Studios. We hope that their efforts and ours will give to you, the Northmont Student Body, a memorable review of our first year at NORTHMONT HIGH SCHOOL.
